ARE IN CLOSE PROXIMITY TO EXISTING TREES.

1. All the workforce should be certified in accordance with the NEW ROAD AND STREET WORKS ACT 1991.

2. Before backfilling of any trench under the start of the works, all personnel should be trained and certificated to work in confined spaces and should have been provided with all appropriate PPE.

3. All works should comply to Sewers For Adoption 6th Edition.

4. The works should be carried out only with the consent of ANGLIAN WATER SERVICES and in accordance with the requirements of the HEALTH AND SAFETY AT WORK ACT 1991.

5. All works should only be attempted by suitably qualified and experienced personnel.

6. All onsite & offsite sewer/gas, water, electricity, telecom, cable TV and sewers etc., may exist on site or at any depth. Hence, it should be assumed that gas, water, electricity, telecom, cable TV and sewers etc., may exist on site or at any depth. Hence, it should be assumed that any unmarked or unvisible underground service may exist on site.

7. The works should only be carried out with the consent of The Director of Environment, Transport and Development, and in accordance with the requirements of the HEALTH AND SAFETY AT WORK ACT 1991. The works should only be carried out with the consent of The Director of Environment, Transport and Development, and in accordance with the requirements of the HEALTH AND SAFETY AT WORK ACT 1991.

8. OH & SW Standard Details see separate DRGs.

9. The works should be carried out only with the consent of ANGLIAN WATER SERVICES and in accordance with the requirements of the HEALTH AND SAFETY AT WORK ACT 1991. This will allow the Highways Inspector to program the works and schedule them to suit the construction programme.

10. This will allow the Highways Inspector to program the works and schedule them to suit the construction programme.

11. The works should be carried out only with the consent of ANGLIAN WATER SERVICES and in accordance with the requirements of the HEALTH AND SAFETY AT WORK ACT 1991. All workers should be certified in accordance with the NEW ROAD AND STREET WORKS ACT 1991. All workers should be certified in accordance with the NEW ROAD AND STREET WORKS ACT 1991. All workers should be certified in accordance with the NEW ROAD AND STREET WORKS ACT 1991.

12. Note: For further details see JBA Consultancy Services Ltd drgs.