1. St Andrew and St Peters Church
   • What is the significance of the church in heritage terms?
   • Does the appeal site form part of the surroundings in which the church is experienced (its setting)?
   • What contribution does the appeal site make to the significance of the church and the ability to appreciate that significance?
   • What effect would the appeal proposal have on the significance of the church?
   • Would this effect give rise to any harm, and if so, what is the nature and degree of the harm?
